Research Projects

- | | |
|-----------------------------------|---|
| Istanbul Greek | Ongoing project documenting the linguistic structure of Istanbul Greek and connecting variation to social differentiation via acoustic, discourse and multimodal analyses and guise experimentation. |
| Rhode Island English | Documenting English spoken in Rhode Island, an understudied variety in between Boston and New York City that has features of both present. |
| Hypercorrect Housewives | Studying the exponence of hypercorrected English coordinated pronouns in The Real Housewives using television corpus and stancetaking analysis. |
| Spanish Diminutives | Examining the sociopragmatic functions of and ideologies surrounding diminutives in Spanish varieties with surveys and discourse analysis. |
| Ethnonyms in Minoritized Contexts | Discourse analysis of how minoritized speakers navigate ethnic labeling in contexts such as stateless nations (Assyrians/Arameans) or panethnic affiliation (Hellenes/Romans or Latinx/Hispanic) and how linguistic variation is mapped onto such labels. |
